Business and building for sale in prime Windermere

Dormehl Phalane Musgrave presents, for sale, a thriving, revenue-generating business and building in Windermere, off Umgeni Road.

This is a fantastic offer for a business venture and building. Start making returns from the first day of purchase!

This building has two floors, with drive-in access for trucks/deliveries to both floors. The office space has a reception area, and there are six more office spaces in the warehouse.

The warehouse has a good height for storage. There are ablutions for men and women, as well as a kitchen for the staff.

In addition to the building, you get a thriving electronic business distribution company that is a going concern with an abundance of stock. And note that there is a standby generator for loadshedding - hence, no loss of business.
